

Adam P. Lewis

adam.p.lewis@gmail.com

C: 415.497.7910

4840 MacArthur Blvd., NW, Apt. 408
Washington, DC 20007

EXPERIENCE

Human Rights Watch – Washington, DC
Associate, US Program

January 2011 – Present

- Draft and edit press releases, reports, and articles for publication in major news media outlets
- Provide research support to US Program experts on counterterrorism, criminal justice, and immigration
- Coordinate recruitment process for new US Program researchers and interns
- Provide administrative assistance to experts—manage calendars, correspondence, travel arrangements, etc.

Center for a New American Security – Washington, DC
External Relations Intern

September – January 2011

- Managed organization's website and social media outreach through Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, YouTube, etc. (facilitated 33% increase in Facebook users and 18% increase in Twitter followers in four months)
- Coordinated report launches, expert panels and private briefings for the press and Capitol Hill staffers
- Monitored and analyzed the media engagement of the organization and its experts

Peacefare.net – Washington, DC
Editor, Webmaster, Contributor

May – October 2011

- Managed and edited blog for Daniel Serwer, a former Foreign Service Officer and VP at U.S. Institute of Peace
- Contributed coverage of events taking place in Washington related to conflict analysis and resolution
- Prepared and delivered weekly email newsletter as well as maintained subscriber list

Institute for the Study of War – Washington, DC
Research Intern

August – September 2011

- Provided research assistance to New York Times journalist Michael R. Gordon for a book on Iraqi politics
- Transcribed and analyzed interviews conducted with British, American, and Iraqi government officials

Commonwealth Academy – Alexandria, VA
Writing Teacher, Assistant Varsity Basketball Coach, Assistant P.E. Teacher

July 2010 – July 2011

- Designed and implemented writing curricula for students with learning differences including ADD/ADHD
- Organized and managed field trips, student performances, athletics travel, and club outings

Writing Tutor, Haverford College Writing Center – Haverford, PA

May 2009 – May 2010

Political Science Research Assistant on African Family Law, Haverford College – Haverford, PA Summer 2009

Religion & Law Intern, The Pew Forum on Religion & Public Life – Washington, DC Summer 2008

EDUCATION

Haverford College – Haverford, PA

May 2010

- B.A. in Political Science and Religion: GPA in Majors: 3.95/4.0, Overall GPA: 3.87/4.0
 - Magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, Departmental High Honors in Political Science and Religion, Religion Department Prize for Most Outstanding Senior Thesis (Reconciling Islam and Modernity: The Role of Ayatollah Khomeini in Shaping Iranian Discourses on Islam and Democracy)
 - Law School Admission Test (LSAT) score: 175 (99th percentile)
-

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Language: Spanish (advanced), Arabic (intermediate – currently studying), Japanese (basic)

Technology: Proficient with Microsoft Office Suite, social media, and web analytics; familiar with HTML

Leadership: Captain of Haverford Baseball Team, Vice President of Haverford Student Council, Student Representative to the Board of Managers Long Range Planning Committee, Student Representative to the Dean of the College Search Committee, Coach of youth baseball team in Northwest D.C. Little League

Interests: Foreign travel (18 countries visited), sports, outdoor activities, reading historical fiction, cooking

References available upon request